Revised Policy on Graduate Stipends/Fellowships

- Research active faculty members can offer competitive Graduate Research Fellowships of a minimum of $1,000 to eligible graduate students.
- Graduate Research Fellowships are administered by the academic department and are open to all eligible graduate students. Domestic, International and Texas residents are considered to be eligible for these awards.
- A Departmental committee reviews the applications for these competitive graduate fellowships and makes a recommendation to the Department Chair. The Department Chair documents the selection process and justifies why the student(s) is being awarded the research fellowship.
- Graduate students holding these fellowships qualify for in-state tuition. They must be enrolled for a minimum of nine semester hours (3 hours in the summer) and maintain a minimal 3.0 GPA for each semester in which the assistantship is awarded.
- Graduate students who are on probation are not eligible for the Research Fellowships. The award may be renewable for one additional year.
