

Los Tres Larrys!*

February 4, 2012

Doors open at 7:00 PM
Concert begins at 7:30 PM

Rabbi Larry Karol assumed the pulpit at Las Cruces' Temple Beth-El this past July. Music has been an essential part of his three decades in the rabbinate and has yielded CDs of original Jewish music, 2003's Two are Better Than One, 2005's A New Beginning, and a companion songbook. For more on Karol's music (including new songs), see larrykarol.com or his many YouTube videos.

Rabbi Larry Bach also uses music in his rabbinate. His 2008 CD (Kivvunim) of Jewish music yielded award-winning songs such as "Dreams of Peace" (a 2009 finalist in the Peace Music Foundation's International Peace Song Contest) and "Ki Eshm'ra Shabbat" (a winner of the 2011 NewCAJE contest).

UTEP Professor Larry Lesser is also an award-winning songwriter and his Jewish songs have appeared on CDs by recording artists such as Sababa and Ellen M. Wilson. His "Healing Song" is also used at Temple Mount Sinai services and bikkur cholim work; his "Lights Lead Home" appears on YouTube and in a national resource guide on B'nei Anousim.

Alison Westermann ably wears the many hats of Mom, Hebrew and music teacher, wife and singer songwriter. As reported in the September Jewish Voice, Alison was a 2011 winner of the NewCAJE New Voices songwriting competition for her song "Adonai Tzuri V'goali" and a mesmerizing performance is on YouTube.

Donations encouraged at the door, all proceeds to: Kelly Memorial Food Pantry

Jewish music lovers, come sample four accomplished local songwriters in one concert! Everyone in this "Erev Super Bowl" lineup has recorded Jewish songs on CDs and/or YouTube.
